DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

An Exhibit collected from it for the Pan-American Exposition.

The Department of Justice of the United States Government contains much that is of interest to the general public, and to lawyers especially, and, therefore, the announcement that a large exhibit, taken from this valuable collection, will be made at the Pan-American Exposition, will be received with great pleasure in many quarters. This exhibit will include the portraits of all the Chief Justices of the United States, from Jay to Melville W. Fuller, forming a group of highly intellectual men. Notable among these are the faces of John Marshall, Roger B. Taney, Salmon P. Chase. With these will be shown a photographic view of the Supreme Court Room, which is situated near the Senate wing of the United States Capitol.

The portraits of the Attorneys-General of the United States will be prominently displayed, including that of the gentlemen to be appointed the 4th of March, who will, of course, when the Exposition opens, be the presiding officer of that department.

One great attraction of this exhibit will be the collection of law books. These include the opinions of the Attorneys-General, the Statutes at large of the United States, many volumes of colonial laws and some rare old law books, which will be examined with especial interest and pleasure, not only by scholarly lawyers, but by every one who has read history. For example, there are eleven volumes of State Trials for Heresy and High Treason, by Francis Hargrave, Esq., published in London in 1770. These volumes contain a verbatim report of all the great trials of Great Britain from the reign of Richard II to that of George III. It is like turning over the pages of romance to read, as the visitors to the Exposition will be able to do, the trial of Mary, Queen of Scots; of Sir Walter Raleigh; of King Charles I; of Archbishop Cranmer; of Titus Oates, the learned Jesuit Priest who pleaded his own cause; of Captain William Kidd, the noted pirate, who roamed up and down the Atlantic seaboard and infested the West Indies before the great American Republic existed. These are only a few that are included in the volumes that will be brought to the Exposition. In the same volume will be noted the rulings of Lord Chief Justice Coke and of the notorious Lord Chief Justice Jeffries. There are other old legal authorities that cannot fail to delight the antiquarian, the scholar and the student. Among these is the first edition of Blackstone's Commentaries printed on the North American Continent in 1771.

The seals of the United States and of the different departments of the government will also be shown in this exhibit. The seal of the Department of Justice is very handsomely painted, and the origin of the motto has puzzled many good Latinists of the present day.

Perhaps the most striking object in this exhibit is a beautiful female figure representing Justice, which was designed from suggestions made by Major Frank Strong. She holds the traditional scales in one hand and an unsheathed sword in the other. Major Strong, in spite of the sterner duties of his profession, is a fine artist, and has with his own brush painted a number of beautiful pictures.

There will be a collection of autograph letters in the exhibit from former Presidents of the United States, including some from President McKinley, showing evidence of their clemency towards convicted persons.

Fine photographs of the prisons of the United States will be exhibited.

The scope of the exhibit is necessarily small, but it is one of absorbing interest, especially to the more cultured classes.

This exhibit has been collected by Major Frank Strong, the general agent for the Department of Justice, and the Representative on the Government Board for the Pan-American Exposition.

DEATHS.

RAY—At the home of her husband in Nashville, Tenn., on Monday, Mrs. Maude Ways Ray, wife of Rev. T. Bronson Ray, and daughter of Mr. Merritt R. Ways, of Georgetown.

Mrs. Ray was born and raised in this city, and was well known and beloved. She was a handsome and lovely young matron, devoted to her husband and the church for which he so earnestly labored.

The remains were buried at Nashville on Wednesday.

Mrs. Ray leaves an aged father, a devoted and heart-broken young husband, one child, and two brothers—Rev. Willis L. Ways, of West Virginia, and Mr. Wm. T. Ways, of Louisville, as well as a large circle of friends to mourn her untimely death.

Our sincerest sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones.

ORR—At the home of her father, Capt. Ed. Porter Thompson, on Wednesday morning, Mrs. Martha E. Orr, wife of Mr. John T. Orr, aged about 35 years.

Mrs. Orr's health failed several years since, and her death was a happy release from suffering. She had been a member of the Baptist Church since early girlhood.

She leaves a husband (who is in very poor health), and three children, besides her father, mother, sister and one brother, to mourn her death.

The funeral took place from the residence of the family on Shelby street on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, services being conducted by Rev. M. B. Adams, after which the remains were interred in our cemetery.

The tenderest sympathy is felt for those so greatly bereft.

A HORRIBLE OUTBREAK

MATRIMONIAL.

BALDWIN-NEWTON—At the Sacra House, Frankfort, Ky., on Monday, March 20, 1901, by the Rev. George Dursie, Mr. Jesse Baldwin, of Elmville, and Miss Cordelia Newton, of Switzer, Ky.

Attendants, Mr. J. M. Hancock and Miss Dora Baldwin.

READ IT.

Mr. W. T. Reading, the Broadway street merchant, offers extra inducements to customers for eight days, commencing to-day. Read his ad.

It is not so much what the newspapers say, as what neighbors say to neighbor, or friend to friend, that has brought Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy into such general use. It is as natural for people to express their gratitude after using this remedy as it is for water to flow down hill. It is the one remedy that can always be depended upon, whether a baby be sick with cholera infantum or for a man with cholera morbus. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. Have you a bottle of it in your home? For sale by J. W. Gayle, South & Longmoor.

It's enough to wear any one out. First it's washing, in damp and draft. Then it's ironing with the hot stove and the hard work to endure. And in between whiles, meals to get, house to clean, and children to tend. It's had enough for a well woman but for a weak woman it's slow torture. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the diseases of the delicate organs which weaken women. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free of charge. All correspondence strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"My health is the best now that it has been for four years," writes Mrs. Phoebe Morris, of Ira, Cayuga Co., N. Y. "I have taken but two bottles of your medicine, 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' These medicines have done me more good than all that I have ever taken before. Before I took your medicine I was sick in bed nearly half the time. I couldn't do my work only about half the time, and now I can work all the time for a family of four. My advice to all who are troubled with female weakness is to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery'—the most wonderful medicines in the world."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets sweeten the breath.

The Frankfort Roundabout

Entered at the postoffice at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, MARCH 23, 1901.

WHY CERTAINLY, START IT BY ALL MEANS.

A rumor has floated into this office to the effect that some enterprising individual has in contemplation the establishment of a newspaper in this city, and as a preliminary step has given circulation to the report that the Roundabout was about dead; that its circulation has vanished and the paper amounted to but little.

We are sorry to hear this, as we had no idea it was quite so bad. But we want to state a few facts for the information of the gentleman who is so anxious to fill the long-felt want, to-wit: The Roundabout made its first appearance September 29, 1877, and since that time has witnessed the passing of seventeen newspapers—daily, semi-weekly, weekly and monthly—while it has never missed an issue. Some of these papers were started with the avowed purpose of running the Roundabout out of town, preaching its funeral, etc. They abused it and hired canvassers, who went out into the county and tried to get its subscribers by misrepresentation. Well, we are here yet, but where are the other fellows?

It may be also mentioned as a fact that no paper has ever been started in Frankfort, since the establishment of the Roundabout, that is alive to-day, which is not printed in the Roundabout office. Some of the papers mentioned were established by old experienced newspaper men, industrious news gatherers, and got out good papers, but they had not money to burn and went away sorrowful. Now if our ambitious friend wants to sail in, the way is open and the rathole yawning for his wealth.

Rheumatism.

Nobody knows all about it; and nothing, now known, will always cure it.

Doctors try Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, when they think it is caused by imperfect digestion of food. You can do the same.

It may or may not be caused by the failure of stomach and bowels to do their work. If it is, you will cure it; if not, you will do no harm.

The way, to cure a disease is to stop its cause, and help the body get back to its habit of health.

When Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil does that, it cures; when it don't, it don't cure. It never does harm.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other. If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl St., N. Y. soc. and $1.00; all druggists.

HAS LEASED OCEAN VIEW HOTEL.

The well-known Ocean View Hotel has been leased to Mr. J. Hull Davidson, formerly proprietor for ten years of the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, Ky., where he was president of the Chamber of Commerce and mayor of the city as well. He is a native of Lexington.

Mr. Davidson has lately returned from Paris, where he was in charge of the American Restaurant at the Exposition there. He managed all the official entertainments given at the United States pavilion by Commissioner-General Peck and other representatives of the United States. Among these events were the receptions given by the States of New York and California; the banquets to the American athletes; a luncheon to the King of Belgium, and the lavish entertainments of William Walsh.

The enterprising Mr. R. Lancaster Williams sees in Mr. Davidson great chances for the increase of the patronage of Ocean View, whose attractions are well known, and it is believed that with his high social standing in Kentucky he will bring numerous Western and Southern society people to Ocean View during the coming season.

On next Tuesday and Wednesday, March 26th and 27th, you will find on display all the latest styles in Paris and New York pattern hats and bonnets at Mrs. Sally Thomas. 28-1t.

ALARM WEDNESDAY.

There was an alarm from box 18, at 6:35 on Wednesday evening, which was caused by the burning out of a chimney in a cottage on Second street, occupied by colored people. There was no damage done.

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for more when given One Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for croup. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for gripe and asthma and has long been a well known remedy for whooping cough South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

NARROW ESCAPE.

While Capt. John R. Spiers and daughter were driving along the Devil's Hollow pike, Sunday afternoon, a rock rolled down the hill and frightened the horse, which jumped over the bank throwing Capt. Spiers and his daughter out. Fortunately they were not seriously injured.

The frightened animal, dragging the wreck of the buggy, then ran in Taylor Avenue and Second street to Bridge street. It there ran on the pavement in front of Kleber's confectionery, where a colored man succeeded in catching and stopping it.

There was quite a crowd of people passing and there was a scampering into the drug stores and confectionery to get out of the way.

Go to Mrs. Sally Thomas for well ready to wear hats. 28-2t

ELIJAH WAS HUNG.

It was in an Episcopal Sunday-school that a lady teacher was questioning her class, and asked one little fellow if he ever heard of Elijah. "Yesum," was the reply. "Well how did he die?" she asked. "He was hung," "Hung! No, child; what in the world made you think so?" "Why the preacher says so every Sunday. He always says on these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets, and Elijah was a prophet."

LOST AN ARM.

On Saturday night, while Mr. Jesse Moore, formerly of this city, was engaged in making a running coupling of cars of a freight train, at La Grange, he slipped and fell as he ran ahead of the cars. His right arm fell across the rail, and, before he could get it out of the way, the car wheel ran over it and crushed the hand and wrist.

Mr. Moore is a brother of Mrs. J. M. Wakefield, Mrs. I. T. West and Mrs. N. I. McDaniel, of this city.

He was taken to Louisville, where the arm was amputated below the elbow.

Prof. Ivison, of Lonaconing, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. SAD DEATH.

The sad news came to this city Sunday that Miss Jennie S. French had died at Asheville, N. C., early that morning, of that dread disease, consumption. Miss French was stenographer and typewriter for Mr. C. P. Chennault, and her health giving way she went to North Carolina in hopes of recuperating.

She was a bright and pretty young girl, beloved by all who knew her for her gentle and refined character. She was a sister of Mrs. J. Craik Jackson, and a granddaughter of Mrs. Wm. French, of this city. She was also the daughter of the late Mr. Sidney French, who served as City Attorney of this city for several years before his death.

Hearing of her serious illness, her mother, Mrs. Helen R. French, and Mr. J. Craik Jackson had started to Georgetown to catch the Q. & C. train for Asheville, and the sad news was telephoned to them at that place.

The remains were brought here and the funeral held on Wednesday afternoon, after which they were interred in the family lot in our cemetery.

The tenderest sympathy of many friends and relatives is felt for the sorrowing ones.

ARRESTED.

Officers Williams and Whitehead arrested Parker Purkins, colored, on the 9:50 L. & N. train, on Tuesday, on the authority of a telegram from LaGrange, charged with stealing $70. He was lodged in jail to await officers from Oldham county. The man was dressed in a full suit of new clothing and had a new grip full of clothing. He claimed to be en route to Nicholasville.

SUNDAY'S RAZOR.

Two colored women named Della Mosby and Ella Parker, residents of Long Lane Alley, became involved in a difficulty on Sunday afternoon. The Mosby woman proceeded to carve the Parker woman with a razor, cutting a bad gash on her breast.

The Mosby woman was locked up.

When you are bilious, use those famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers to cleanse the liver and bowels. They never gripe. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

SOMETHING UNUSUAL.

Sunday last was St. Patrick's day (airily in the mornin'), and what never happened here in the memory of the oldest inhabitant, it was a bright, clear and pleasant day throughout—not a drop of rain or a flake of snow falling. May there be many more such.

See that you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve when you ask for it. The genuine is a certain cure for piles, sores and skin diseases. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

TO HELP THE CLOVERTOP SUFFERERS.

There was a meeting held at the court-house on Tuesday night to arrange for raising funds to aid the fire sufferers at Cloverport. The Elks were requested to repeat their concert.

WILL CELEBRATE ITS CENTENNIAL.

The first Presbyterian Church of this city will celebrate its one hundredth anniversary on Sunday, March 31st. Exercises appropriate to the day will be given, and a history of the church read.

It is earnestly hoped that all the members will be present.

Rev. Dr. J. McClusky Blayney has been the pastor of this church for about 20 years.

THEIR OPENING.

The spring opening of Messrs. Weitzel & O'Donnell was held on Tuesday last, March 19, and was a decided success. All the latest styles and fabrics in dress goods and ladies' lingerie were on exhibition, and their store was filled with busy shoppers all day long.

The stomach controls the situation. Those who are hearty and strong are those who can eat and digest plenty of food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. If you suffer from indigestion, heartburn, belching or any other stomach trouble, this preparation can't help but do you good. The most sensitive stomach can take it. South & Longmoor and W. McKee Hardie.

ZILPAH.

March is here again with howling winds and driving storms.

Health good, not many being on the sick list.

Farm work is in progress. Moving is about over. Visiting is the program. Among some of the many is Mr. John Samples, of Kokoma, Ind., who was here this week on business.

Mrs. Sarah Moore returned from a visit of several days to her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Watkins, Bailey's Mill.

Mr. John Graves, of this place, sold his farm to Mr. Bernie Stivers. Price paid, $1,200.

John Samples, who sold his farm here to Mr. Hayden and went to Indiana to locate, has bought the same back of Mr. Hayden and rented it to Mrs. Jennie Bryant for this season.

Mr. Eugene Bryant has rented from Mr. George Demaree, and will move soon.

Mr. James Bright, of this place, is contemplating going to the Indian Territory this spring.

Mr. J. K. Moore and wife were at Shelbyville this week on business.

CLOSE OBSERVER.

STAMPING GROUND.

Mr. Richard C. Head and wife visited his sister, Mrs. Will Combs, in Frankfort, Sunday. Mr. Head's mother, who has been stricken with paralysis, is rapidly recovering under the treatment of Dr. R. P. Buckmaster, the Osteopathist.

Splendid rains have fallen in this section since my last letter. Every thing has been improved by them. The wheat is coming out splendidly, and hopes are now entertained for a fair crop.

The many friends of Squire J. S. Lindsay sympathize with him in the sudden death of his brother, Mr. Anthony T. Lindsay, of Carroll county.

The host of friends of Dr. H. Gilbert Reynolds are congratulating him upon his success in his new home at Fisherville, but especially upon his having won such a fine young lady as his bride.

Our community was shocked when the news came that Mr. French S. Lair had been accidentally drowned at Stone's mill, where he was employed. It seems that he had gone out on the dam at the mill to raise some nets he had set there, and when he started back he took a short cut under the mill, forgetting to stoop low enough, he ran his head against a beam, cutting a considerable gash in the top of his head, and knocking him down. In the fall his face struck a rock, producing unconsciousness. In the fall his head went into the water, and he was drowned. He was a clever and popular man. He lived with his widowed mother, his sister and brother. The remains were taken back to his old home at Cynthiana for interment. His life was insured for $2,000. YACOB.

The Chafing Dish

What memories it brings up. In the hands of your inexperienced friend that evening for the first time, it caused you, perhaps, an uneasy and restless season of "seeing things" in your dreams. What was it? A Welch-Rambler, or — I who can tell? But seriously, the chafing dish is a source of a deal of pleasure. We can show you a variety from the Meriden Britannia Co., with all the fixings that are convenient to use with them—Trays, Spoons, Forks, Skimmers, Flavors, etc. The dishes are heavily plated on copper or nickel silver, carefully finished; the lamp is particularly good, giving a strong and steady flame, easily regulated. As a means of helping little social gatherings to be a success, a chafing dish is unequalled. Have one in your room and invite in your friends. A beautifully illustrated little book with full directions, containing fifty reliable receipts, with each dish.

For Brain Fag

Loss of mental energy, lack of thought power, failing memory or inability to concentrate the mind on the work in hand, there is nothing so good as Dr. Miles' Nervine. Its powerful influence in building up and strengthening the broken-down nerves, makes this great remedy an invaluable brain-food and restorative. It nourishes, fortifies and refreshes the tired and worn-out brain and gives new strength, new life, and new energy to the system.

"Excessive application to my studies and hard work in the ministry undermined my health and affected my brain and nervous system. My memory failed, my mind was dull, my thoughts confused and I was so nervous and restless that I could scarcely sleep. After I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine all this was changed and in a few months I was feeling better and stronger than I had before in years."

REV. W. L. SINGLETON, Dacula, Ga.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

Adds renewed force to the system, puts a new light in the eye, gives new firmness to the step and new life to the mind. Now is the time to try it.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and your grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing so serious the matter with you. For sale by S. B. Holmes, 4-1y.

Arizona, the sensational triumph, is reputed to be the greatest success and most expensive production that left New York this season. The play is a grand pageantry of beautiful stage pictures, as it is the recital of one of the most thrilling and exciting episodes in the history of the world. There are six acts and nine tableaux, each a picture of artistic creation. The locale of the play is at Byzantium, the capital of the Eastern Empire, during the reign of Emperor Justinian and Empress Theodora. Theodora, a child of the circus, passed her early years in the environment of low and degraded women. She runs away from her master with a rich merchant, forsakes him and marries Justinian, who subsequently ascends the throne and installs his wife as Empress. Theodora soon tires of the pomp and ostentation of the palace. In company with a single attendant she seeks adventure and amusement among her people in guise of Myrta, a young widow. While on one of these escapades she meets a young and handsome Athenian, with whom she becomes enamored. Andreas is the leader of his people, and plans the downfall of the empire. A plan is laid for the abduction of the Emperor, which fails. Later Andreas confided to Theodora his intention of killing the Empress. At the arena he recognizes his Myrta and the Empress as the same person, and publicly denounces her in the vilest terms. He is arrested, but Justinian declares that if he wins the race in which he is to participate as representative of the people, he may go free. Knowing him to be too severely wounded to withstand the strain of the encounter, Theodora, to save her lover, has him secreted away, and porfiting by her early training in the circus, secures a costume like his and rides the horses in his place to victory. By an unfortunate falling of her hair on her shoulders she is detected by Justinian, who sentences her to execution. Theodora escapes and hides in a vault beneath the hippodrome, where Andreas lies wounded. Here Theodora endeavors to regain his love. He scorns her advances. In her desperation she gives him the contents of a vial of poison, thinking it a philter of love charm. Andreas dies, just at the executioner enters by order of Justinian to behead the Empress.

MIRTH FROM THE MIDWAY.

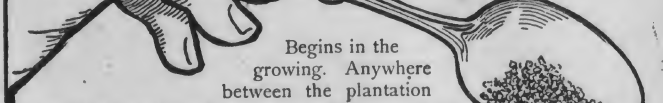

Buffalo has already received a foretaste of the Pan-American Midway. A few nights ago the Concessionaire Association expended about $2,000 in bringing together, for one night only some of the novelties which will have a place in this gay quarter of the Exposition. Each of the many concessionaires contributed a part for the programme. The stage equipments were arranged in the gymnasium of the Buffalo Club, and it was a night of full attendance on the part of the members. The programme opened with an Indian War Dance by genuine red skins, who will participate in the Indian Congress, one of the greatest concessions of the Midway, where representatives of forty-two tribes will be presented. A ractime millionaires, representing the Old Plantation, came next upon the scene. Chiquiti, the "living doll," aged thirty-two, no higher than a yard stick, conversed with her attendant in the presence of the audience, sang a dainty song and waltzed to the music of the orchestra. Two native Mexicans in their peculiar costumes, who will appear in the theatre of the "Streets of Mexico," gave a clever performance of singing and dancing. Gus Williams came up from New Mexico to tell a few clever stories and sing a song or two. The famous illusionist, Roltair, who is responsible for the "House Upside Down," on the Midway, gave a magic performance of very unusual cleverness. A Venetian serenade, with mandolin, guitar and flute accompaniment, reminded the listeners of "Venice in America." Fatima of the "Beautiful Orient" performed her famous dances. The royal Japs of the "Japanese Village," the dancing bear of the "Animal Show," Hattie Wells, a noted dancer, and three queens from the Pacific possessions, helped to draw out the entertainment to an unusual length. It was a rare occasion and gave promise of a Midway of unusual interest.

Inasmuch as each feature of the Midway will be a fine entertainment in itself, the aggregate cost of his magnificent collection reaching some $8,000,000, the reader may, to some degree, understand the preparations making or this feature of the Exposition.

The Making of Good Coffee

Begins in the growing. Anywhere between the plantation and the coffee pot the flavor may be changed, the quality spoiled by carelessness, inexperience, or unscrupulous methods. From the time Arbuckles' Coffee leaves the hands of the grower until it reaches the user in a sealed packet, it is handled with the same watchful care, the same thought for cleanliness, that you would give any article of food that goes on your table. That's the reason it costs the grocer a cent a pound more than its cheap imitations. The extra cent you pay for buys much more than a cent's worth of quality and strength. A pound of Arbuckles' Coffee will give you more cupfuls of better coffee than you would get from other package coffees.

Be sure you get Arbuckles' Roasted Coffee. Other package coffees are but imitations of Arbuckles'.

In each pound package of Arbuckles' Roasted Coffee there is a list of articles. With each package in which the list is found the purchaser has bought a definite part of some article to be selected by him or her from the list, subject only to the condition that the signatures on the package is to be cut out and returned to our Nation Dept. You should see this list. Address all communications to Bar Meeting.

At a meeting of the Frankfort Bar held at the Court House Friday morning, March 15, 1901, out of respect to the memory of Pat McDonald, deceased, Hon. Ira Julian was chosen chairman and Wm. Cronwell Secretary.

A committee composed of J. B. Lindsey, L. F. Johnson and T. P. Tremere was appointed to report suitable resolutions.

The committee reported the following resolutions, viz:

The members of the Frankfort Bar, with bowed heads and subdued spirits, have assembled in their court room to deplore the loss of another associate, and pay their last sad tribute to the memory of Pat McDonald whose lifeless form now lies at his home across the street.

Though recently admitted to the bar, he had already evinced unusual interest in the practice and challenged our esteem by the same worthy ambition to succeed in our profession which gave him success as a business man and a journalist through so many years in this community.

His long and faithful service as Justice of the Peace and member of the Fiscal Court of Franklin county for years doubtless led him to become member of the legal profession.

Identified as he was with the old Frankfort Yeoman and the Public Printing of the Commonwealth, his acquaintance with the public men of Kentucky was extensive, and he was so often an important factor in politics that his name will long be remembered as part of the history, and cherished as part of the political reminiscence of his State.

But to those who are closest to Pat McDonald his domestic relations constituted his greatest virtue, and as a husband, father and neighbor the real tenderness of his nature and kindness of his heart was best exemplified.

We tender our sincere sympathy to his stricken family, and ask that these resolutions be spread on the record of our Circuit Court and a copy furnished to his family.

JNO. B. LINDSEY,
L. F. JOHNSON,
T. P. TREMERE.

After appropriate remarks were made by several members of the Bar said resolutions were unanimously adopted.

A committee was appointed to provide a suitable floral offering. The meeting then adjourned.

A LAST TRIBUTE!

The burial of Eliza Rodas Watson, wife of the Rev. Wm. L. McEwan, pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., took place Sunday March 10th, in the cemetery, at Frankfort, Ky.

To those who assembled at the little station to await the coming of the train, which bore the mortal remains of one who was known and loved of all in Frankfort, the occasion was one of tenderest sorrow. They did not meet to do honor to the wife of the faithful and beloved pastor, to the devoted helpmate of God's minister. That sweet and touching tribute had been paid by those, among whom she had spent the last years of her life, whose thoughtful kindness and loving consideration had left indelible not one thing, which could have added to the comfort and brightness of her sick room.

Here was a different note, a sense of personal love and loss. Those who bore her to the terrace overlooking the winding river, where sleep her own beloved dead, were the elders of the Church where she had received her first communion, they were the playmates of her childhood, the companions of her radiant girlhood, the tried friends of her maturer years.

They were her mother's friends, her father's kindred, her husband's people, and all these loved her. The simple services were soon over. There was a prayer from one who had known her from girlhood, whose voice was husky with emotion; a passage from God's word; beautiful voices lifted in melody, floated up to Heaven on the wings of the wind, and there under a bed of flowers, whose fragrance was like her own sweet spirit, with God's sunlight shining over all, we left her to await the Resurrection morn.
